

Internship Acceptance Confirmation

Dear Sir/Madam,

We write to formally confirm that Dorcas Oforiwa Maccarthy a student of the university of education, has been accepted for an internship placement with Accra brewery limited.

The internship will commence on 26th January and end on 31st April, during which period the student will be attached to the Department of Marketing of our organization. The student will be exposed to practical training relevant to their field of study and will work under the supervision of designated staff members.

We confirm that Accra Brewery is willing and able to provide the necessary guidance, supervision, and assessment required as part of the internship programme.

Should you require any further information or clarification, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Thank you.

Yours faithfully,

Emmanuella Odamety
